Duck Names

I need YOUR help! I have soooo many ducks without names. One of these ducks can take a journey with you to find their true name. But unfortunately I cannot be there to hear your story. Will you ask someone to help you write about the adventure to find a duck's name? After you're done, send the story to me so I can name my ducks! Write your own story or fill in the blanks below.

One day a child named _____ went on an adventure in the woods with a duck. _____ (child's name) packed _____ in a backpack and put the duck on his/her _____ and set off. They decided to go to _____ because that's where the _____ lives. While they were there, they got a _____ and decided it was exactly what they needed. Now they were ready to face any challenge! _____ (child's name) said "off we go, duck!" and they set off on their path. Just over a hill a _____ appeared. What will they do now? How can they face this challenge? _____ (child's name) said "we must _____". So they did! It was an adventure and the duck was the biggest help. The duck did what no other duck could do! She _____.

_____. So _____ (child's name) decided to name her _____. _____ (duck's name) and _____ (child's name) can't wait to go on a lot more adventures together.
